

The henequen plant, the agave sisalensis, in various stages of its growth, and from which source Yucatan has been enriched by about two hundred millions of gold dollars since the year 1880.